On September 18, join NetJets and Artspace, the leading online marketplace for contemporary art, in celebrating the opening of Expo Chicago – a contemporary and modern art exposition taking place in Chicago this fall – by attending an invitation-only evening including special access to view the private collection of Larry and Marilyn Fields and renowned artist, Nick Cave's studio.

NetJets is thrilled to offer this unique opportunity to view the private contemporary art collection of Larry and Marilyn Fields in their Chicago home that includes stellar works by Ed Ruscha, Christopher Wool, Mark Bradford, Rashid Johnson and William O'Brien among others. In addition to the collection visit, guests will also have the opportunity to visit Nick Cave's artist studio and engage in conversation with him about his work and practice. Mr. Cave just wrapped up the acclaimed Creative Time commission, HEARD NY, at New York's Grand Central Station.

Finally, for those who are interested in attending the show, NetJets is delighted to offer VIP access to the Expo Chicago which takes place at the historic Navy Pier from Thursday, September 19 through Sunday, September 22.
