Meet Tom Sachs at Aspen ArtCRUSH

On Thursday, August 2 – during the 8th annual ArtCRUSH summer gala festivities – you are invited to join NetJets and Aspen Art Museum as we celebrate with Aspen Award for Art honoree Tom Sachs at a private, invitation-only brunch. At the brunch, Heidi Zuckerman Jacobson, CEO and Director, Chief Curator of the Aspen Art Museum, will lead an exclusive, in-depth conversation with Sachs.

Tom Sachs is a sculptor, installation artist, and painter known for his innovative examination and questioning of icons of capitalist culture and systems of daily life. Through such works as HG, (Hermes Hand Grenade), 1995, and Chanel Guillotine (Breakfast Nook), 1998, and his re-imagined living systems, Sachs provokes reflection on utopian follies and dystopian realities.

Since 2005, the Aspen Art Museum has honored seven groundbreaking contemporary artists with the annual Aspen Award for Art: Richard Tuttle, Tony Feher, Jim Hodges, Ed Ruscha, Fred Tomaselli, Marilyn Minter, and Roni Horn.
